ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE FIRST DAY OF WEEK

Business to be Generally Suspended: No Issue of The Telegraph

Monday will be observed as a holiday generally in Dixon in observance of Armistice Day, which falls on Sunday this year. It has been announced that most of the stores, barber shops and offices of the city will not be open for business the first day of the coming week and the banks will also be closed.

The holiday will be partially observed at the post office, also, where the windows will close at noon. Rural and city carriers will make the morning delivery of mail, and the usual collection and dispatch of outgoing mail will be made in the afternoon.

And in co-operation with the business interests of the city The Telegraph will also suspend business for the day and will issue no paper on Monday.

Special services will be held in all of Dixon's churches Sunday morning in commemoration of Armistice Day, at which time the pastors will preach special sermons.

Mayor's Proclamation
Mayor Frank D. Palmer today issued the following proclamation of Armistice Day:

"Next Sunday, November 11th, will be Armistice Day, a day that the whole world should remember for all time to come. And what is true for the world, is especially true for the American people, who sacrificed so many lives for humanity's sake.

"As this year the date falls on Sunday, it has been thought best to have appropriate services held in each church of our city. I earnestly ask that every patriotic citizen of Dixon and community attend the church of his choice, and publicly and with grateful hearts show their appreciation of the men who so willingly gave their time, their health and their lives for a cause that affected the whole world, as well as our America."

Inquest Tomorrow in Furnace Death

Lake Bluff, Ill., Nov. 9.—(AP)—For the formality of holding the inquest into the death of Miss Elfrida Knaak pretty Deerfield book agent and school teacher, who was found fatally burned ten days ago in the basement of the Lake Bluff village hall, 30 witnesses have been summoned by State's Attorney V. Smith.

The inquest is set for tomorrow but authorities have little hopes of lifting the veil of mystery surrounding the young woman's strange death. She was found beside the furnace in the village hall, her arms and legs burned to the bone. She told a weird story of sacrificing herself in the furnace to cleanse her spirit and purify her love for Charles Hitchcock, Lake Bluff policeman and teacher.

State's Attorney Smith refused to believe the girl's story, insisting that if she did do the act herself she was assisted or forced to do so.

(Telegraph Special Service)
Sterling, Nov. 9.—Coroner C. M. Frye of this city this afternoon will conduct an inquest over the remains of William Smith, pastry cook at the Dixie State hospital, who died at the Sterling hospital Wednesday evening of injuries sustained in an automobile crash at Gap Grove. Big Endowment Given Harvard University

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 9.—(AP)—A $3,000,000 fund, given to Harvard anonymously, is expected to make possible the establishment of a number of small colleges within the University resembling the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge.

The fund will be used to build and endow a group of dormitories, dining halls and common rooms to accommodate from 200 to 300 students.

Eventually it is hoped to change the existing system into a collection of convenient sized colleges, each of which would be a separate educational as well as social unit.

Under this plan, Harvard College would be only the name given to this collection. The college would, however, award degrees and conduct uniform examinations.

CHATMAN TRIAL GOES OVER TO JANUARY TERM

Judge Harry Edwards overruled the motion to squash the indictment charging Ira "Sleepy" Chatman with the murder of Isaac Jarman in the labor camp of the Reghardt Construction Company at Compton on the evening of October 27, in the Circuit Court this morning. Chatman's attorney presented a lengthy argument in which he sought to have the indictment quashed.

Chatman was present in court and Judge Edwards, after ruling on the motion, ordered that he be remanded to the county jail. William Reghardt, vice-president and general manager of the construction company and several foremen were present in court. Chatman was returned to his cell in the county jail.

Prospects for an early trial of the murder case dwindled this morning when it was reported that the case would not be brought to trial until the regular January term of the Circuit Court. It was also rumored that friends of Chatman were attempting to bring about some agreement by which prosecution on the murder charge might be halted, but that was meeting with little success.

FOUR BIG OIL STORAGE TANKS MASS OF FLAME

All Available Firemen and Apparatus Rushed to District

Los Angeles, Nov. 9.—(AP)—A raging fire which started when a gas well at the Santa Fe Spring, Calif., oil field blew in this morning was reported to have jumped to four nearby oil storage tanks and a dozen drilling rigs, making an inferno of the western part of the petroleum district.

The well is on the property of the Belle View Oil Company, in an area on many oil wells located close together. All available men and fighting apparatus in the area were gathered to fight the blaze.

The oil field is near Whittier, Cal., about fifteen miles from downtown Los Angeles, and is the scene of a recent gas well fire which burned fiercely for forty days before being extinguished.

Gravel being forced upward by outrushing gas and making sparks by striking the sides of the well casing was the cause of the well fire. There was an explosion when the gas ignited. The derrick was wrecked, mud and gravel was thrown out in large quantities and the flames shot a hundred feet into the air and continued with a sustained roar.

GREATEST BONUS TO STOCKHOLDERS GEN. MOTORS

Promised Pleasant Surprise Announced by Directorate

New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Distribution to its stockholders of the greatest bonus ever paid by an American industrial corporation has been ordered by the directors of General Motors Corporation.

Confidential stockholders are to be asked to vote on the equivalent of a 150 per cent stock dividend, an extra cash dividend of $43,500,000 and an increase of $43,500,000 in annual dividend disbursements.

The action of the directors followed recent announcement by President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., that a "pleasant surprise" was in store for the stockholders. The directors' plan is subject to the vote of the stockholders at the December 10 meeting. Under the plan each holder of a common share of the present stock will receive the regular quarterly dividend of $1.50, and an extra cash dividend of $2.50 and his annual dividend hereafter will be $7.50 instead of $5.00.

The stock distribution plan is in the form of a split up of the 17,500,000 shares of common stock outstanding into 43,500,000 shares or on the basis of two and one-half new shares of $10 par value for each old share of $25 par value. The dividend rate on the new stock was set at $3, the equivalent of $7.50 on the old shares.

The increase in the dividend rate calls for an annual outlay of $139,500,000 against the present dividends of $87,000,000 a year, without the extra dividends which have been a feature of General Motors policy.

LYNN FIRE TOLL MOUNTED TODAY: TOTAL EIGHTEEN

Several Other Victims Near Death: State Investigating

Lynn, Mass., Nov. 9.—(AP)—The explosion which wrecked the Preble Box Toe factory yesterday claimed its eighteenth victim today when Lewis Rogers, an employee of the factory, died in the Lynn Hospital. He was the sixth person to have died in the hospital. Twelve others being killed outright.

While a thorough investigation of the explosion was being made by inspectors from the State Fire Marshal's office, preparations were being made for the funerals of those who lost their lives when the blast ripped away part of the roof and the entire rear wall of the factory and damaged six dwelling houses nearby.

Possibly the most sorrowful preparations were those for the joint funeral of Mrs. Lillian Blaney and five of her children who perished when their house caught fire from the blast. Three other members of the family, the father and two children, were injured, and the father is still in a critical condition in the hospital today.

Four employees of the plant were still in the hospital where it was said there was little hope for two of them.

Explains "Landslide" Which Elected Hoover

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Just what is a "landslide" in a presidential election?

Professor Frank G. Dickinson of the University of Illinois, originator of the Dickinson football rating system, explains the "real meaning" of Herbert Hoover's victory by this illustration:

"Take 10 voters. The first man votes for Hoover, the second man for Smith, and so on to the ninth man, who votes for Hoover. The manner in which the tenth man now votes decides the landslide.

"That is what happened in the election. Had the tenth man followed the examples of the other eleven voters, Hoover would have won. But he did not, so Hoover is our next president.

"If 500,000, or one and one-half per cent of the voters in the closely contested states, had voted Democratic instead of Republican, Smith would be the next President."

Policemen Kidnaped by Chicken Thieves

Coffeyville, Kans., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Earl Hackney, Chief of Police, and W. H. McMurtry, policeman, were kidnapped today by several men when they answered a call to the south part of the city to arrest chicken thieves.

The officers answered the call of a woman who reported she had seen the men hiding half a dozen sacks of chickens. When the Chief and his companion appeared, the woman reported, the men covered them with their guns, forced them into a motor car and drove away.

Police immediately started a search for the missing officers.

ITALIAN CITY IS TODAY ENGULFED IN MOLTEN LAVA

Three Known to Have Perished in Eruption of Mount Etna

Catania, Sicily, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Mascalci, once the home of 10,000 persons, today was a mass of lava and shooting flames. Three persons, whose escape was cut off, perished in the molten stream rolling down the slopes of Mount Etna.

The onrush of the three principal lava streams which had threatened the region between Mascalci and the sea, however, seemed to have diminished in intensity.

The disaster so stunned the simple folk of the countryside that gentlemen and firemen sent to the scene from Catania sometimes found it necessary to use force to drive them to places of safety.

Three Casualties
The three casualties were a father, son and grandson named Pistorio. They had returned to their home to save household goods and as they slept the lava surrounded the dwelling. Fellow townsmen were forced to watch death overtake the three from beyond the lake of lava, being helpless to rescue them.

The spectacle of relentlessly flowing lava seemed to exercise a terrible fascination on men and beasts. A number of cats were lured into Mascalci by the fiery light and destroyed by the molten mass. Birds which hovered over the river of lava were caught by the fumes and fluttered down into the fire like dead leaves.

Dedicated Monument
A monument to the war dead which which was to have been unveiled on Sunday was hastily dedicated just before the lava reached it. Fascists performed the rite by calling the names on the roll of the dead while the crowd answered "present" after each name was called.

Several companies of engineer troops were trying today to lay mines in order to form trenches and thus divert the flow of the molten stream.

The principal stream of lava was flowing in the direction of the railway station at Mascalci. Although it had advanced to within 250 yards of the road bed, rail service was continuing.

Official Tabulation of Votes is Awaited

BULLETIN
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9.—(AP)—With returns from three counties in the 21st district official, Frank Ramey, Republican, of Hillsboro, was leading Earl Major, Democrat, in the race for Congress today by 67 votes.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9.—(AP)—The race between Congressman J. Earl Major, Democrat, and Frank Ramey, Republican, both of Hillsboro, for the Congressional seat from the 21st Illinois district, was expected to be decided today with tabulation of official votes in Macoupin and Sangamon counties. Official returns have already been received from Christian and Montgomery, the other two counties in the district.

Yesterday, as counting of votes showed changes from the unofficial tabulations, Ramey and Major alternately held the lead. When counting of votes started today, Ramey was by the lead by 42 votes.

Macoupin figures are expected to be complete by noon.

Cooling Station is Planned in LaSalle

A cooling station may be established by dairymen living in the north part of La Salle county, to cool their milk before it is shipped to the Chicago market. A meeting of LaSalle county dairymen was held under the auspices of the LaSalle County Farm Bureau at Somonauk this week when plans for building the station were taken up and a committee was selected to determine the bulk of milk that would be brought to such a station and the number of dairymen that would come in on such a project.

A premium is collected in Chicago on all milk that is pre-cooled before it is sent to market.

Wall Street

New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Stock prices moved irregularly higher at the opening of today's market. General Motors, directors of which declared an extra dividend of $2.50 and proposed a 2 1/2 for 1 split up after the close of yesterday's market, opened with a block of 10,000 shares at the split price of 22 1/2 to 22 3/4, an extreme rise of 2 1/2 points. Radio showed an initial gain of 4 1/2 points. Montgomery-Ward 4, Vanadium Steel 3 and American Can, American Sugar Refining, Timken Roller Bearing and DuPont 1 to 1 1/2 points. Strong buying support was provided overnight, and the market resumed its advance in impressive fashion. Wall Street apparently was not disturbed by the increase of nearly $72,000,000 in Federal Reserve brokers' loans, a new high record as earlier estimates generally ran above $100,000,000. Bullish sentiment also was created by the generous dividend distribution of the General Motors Corporation, and the publication of a record-breaking third quarter report by the Radio Corporation, which earned $4.22 a share in that period. General Motors ran into selling after its initial bulge, slipping back to around 220. Montgomery-Ward quickly extended its gain to nearly 6 points and Curtiss Aeroplane, which broke 10 points yesterday, rallied 5 points at the opening. General Electric, Jewel Tea, Archer Daniels Midland and Pillsbury Flour preferred advanced 2 to 3 points to new high records. Rails took a more prominent part in the advance, Erie assuming the leadership of that group with an early gain of 3 points. St. Paul preferred, Delaware & Hudson and Canadian Pacific quickly advanced 4 points or more. Foreign exchanges opened steady, with Sterling cables unchanged at $4.84 27-32. Heavy buying of the railroad shares featured the morning trading. Canadian Pacific ran up more than 3 points to 224 1/2, the highest price in 15 years, and St. Louis Southwestern, Rock Island, Reading, Chicago North Western, Chesapeake & Ohio, New Haven and Western Maryland advanced 2 to 3 points. Montgomery-Ward extended its gain to 23 points but because of ticker delays it was being quoted 15 points lower on the tape when the record was established. Jewel Tea extended its gain to 7 1/2 points. Radio to 5 1/2, and General Electric to 3 1/2. Call money renewed at 6 1/2 per cent. THE UNKNOWN WARRIOR OF THE WORLD WAR
(John R. Rathom)
HE unknown dead? Not so we know him well.
Who died for us on that red soil of France.
Who faced the fearful shock of gas and shell.
And laughed at death in some blood-strewn advance.

Nameless, in truth, but crowned with such a name
As glory gives to those who greatly die;
Who marched, a simple soldier, with the flame
Of duty bidding him to Calvary
He is all brothers dead, all lovers lost,
All sons and comrades resting over there—
The symbol of the knightly, fallen host,
The sacred pledge of burdens yet to bear.

Mangled and torn, for whom we pray to-day,
Whose soul rose grandly to God's peaceful throne,
Leaving to us this quiet, shattered clay
Silent, and still—unnamed—but not unknown.

Triangle Club Met Thursday Evening

The Misses Charlotte and Avonell Brooks delightfully entertained the Christian Church Triangle Club at the George Brooks spacious home, Thursday evening, where they held their regular monthly business meeting and program. Miss Leona Ort, President, presided. Plans were made to present a play in the near future and those present each drew the name of one of the ladies in the Jacksonville Christian Home for the Aged, whom they wish to remember at Christmas time. Others who were not there may get a name from Mrs. J. E. Reagan.

Avonell Brooks had charge of the program. Leona Ort and Avis Cromwell presenting some interesting facts about the work among the Mexicans.

Following the program a delicious two course luncheon was served by the hostesses.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Avis Cromwell, Dec. 13.

BREAKFAST—Grapes, cereal cream, baked sausage, bran muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed Spanish onions with croutons, hearts of celery, cranberry sponge, vanilla wafers, milk, tea.

DINNER—Casserole of veal steak, boiled rice, scalloped tomatoes, stuffed prune salad, coconut cream pie, milk, coffee.

Creamed Spanish Onions
Four medium sized sweet onions, 1-2 pound mushrooms, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 11-2 cups milk, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 slices bread cut 3-4 inch thick.

Peel onions and cut in halves. Cook in boiling salted water for one hour, changing the water twice. Drain and put into a buttered baking dish. In the meantime peel and remove stems from mushrooms. Break in pieces and add to butter melted in a sauce pan. Cover and shake over a hot fire for five minutes. Sift in flour and stir with a fork until thoroughly blended. Season with salt and pepper and add milk. Trim crusts from bread and spread lightly with butter. Cut into 3-4 inch cubes and toast in a hot oven. Sprinkle over onions and sauce. Place baking dish in a hot oven for 20 minutes to make very hot and serve from baking dish.
Any onions can be used in this fashion, but the sweet onions are more delicately flavored.

THE WOMAN'S DAY
by ALLENE JUDGE

Shadowing of the eyelids and curling of the eyelashes now are the finishes to a facial as given by the smartest beauty shops. There seems no limit to the little tricks done in the 40,000 beauty parlors in the nation in which Madame and Miss America spent some $5,000,000 every day. There now are contrivances which "spray the face with sunshine" till outer layers of skin fall off, leaving fresh, tender skin beneath.

MAN, OR JOB?
Alice S. Ryan, secretary of the American Master Hair Dressers Association, explains beauty shop progress thus:

"The thousands of unmarried working women approaching middle life are cognizant of the fact that their will be supplanted in their positions by younger persons if they fail to retain a sprightly, youthful look. Women who are employed, for instance, are the women who are dyeing their hair."

I wonder, do beauty shops run to the tune of millions of dollars because women want jobs or because women want husbands and romance?

SMART JULIANNA
Princess Julianna of Holland, that country's future sovereign, recently entered her own composition in a class song competition at Leyden University which she is attending. The song, submitted without a name in a sealed envelope, won over 120 others.

Commoners have always doted in believing that "those in the manner born" were dumber than they and their offspring. This little tale may make us grant that even blue and noble blood can mean talent and brains, too.

NO EAR RINGS!
Chinese women no longer may wear ear rings, according to the Nationalist authorities in North China who stop women and girls in the street and take off their ear rings and unbind their feet if they are not conforming with the new law.

Ear rings mean about as much to a Chinese woman as skirts do to Occidentals. The lowest slave maidens always has worn her hoops of brass just as the Mandarin's lady has worn her jeweled ear pieces. They are outraged by an edict which violates a custom of long centuries.

St. James Aid Meeting Wednesday
The St. James Aid Society met Wednesday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Charles Shippert. Mrs. Norman Miller assisting Mrs. Shippert in entertaining.

An appetizing chicken dinner was served at the noon hour. The day was spent sewing.
The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Topper, President. Regular meeting and business disposed of we enjoyed the following program: Vocal duet, Mrs. Bahen and Mrs. Wiley Shippert. Piano solo, Miss Emma Shippert. Reading, Mrs. Herbert Bahen.

The ladies decided to hold a bake sale, also fancy work sale on Nov. 24. The meeting then closed. The ladies on departing for their homes voted Mesdames Shippert and Miller royal entertainers.
The society will meet in December with Mrs. Leon Burket.

LOVE'S MAGIC SYMBOL.

New York columnist recently made what he thinks quite a discovery.
Busy Times Square, heart of the theatrical district, he says, is full of "petters." Couples stroll up and down the street, their arms locked about one another, indulging in semi-furtive caresses in the most public place imaginable, and one pays any attention to them.

But let a honeymoon couple stroll down the same street, be they never so circumspect and proper, and every idler and passerby on the sidewalk will pay them the tribute of a second glance.

"Let two people who are honestly in love try to walk through the theater crowd—fingers barely touching—and all New York knows," remarks the columnist.
He thinks this is surprising. But, after all, why should it be?

Petting is rather common, even unexciting, whether in New York or in Dixon. It involves no cosmic revelation or glimpse of hidden glory. The least sophisticated man can ignore it.

But to most people, if they are at all fortunate, these comes at some time or another an experience so tremendous and glorious that no care can hide it. A young man suddenly discovers that all the vague dreams and glittering legends of his boyhood are true; a girl finds that a mailed knight with a silver shield—clad, it may be, in a plain suit of blue serge—has ridden up to her and led the way of the oldest, most entrancing roadway in all the world. Is it any wonder that two such people cannot keep their discovery to themselves, no matter how hard they try?

They might succeed, perhaps, at that, if the rest of us had not been tipped off. But no matter how unlucky or disillusioned we may be, all of us, once in our lives, get a vague glimpse of the glory that lies beyond the stars. Something—perhaps nothing more than a brief hour by a moonlit beach, or a fleeting moment in a city park—comes for a short time to tell us that our dreams have not played us false. We are capable of infinite happiness, even if we do not often actually get it.

So we are in on the secret. We know that a boy and girl, untaught and unaided, can build for themselves a heaven as splendid as the one that John saw on Patmos. We know, too, unfortunately, that this heaven of theirs probably will not last; but while it lasts it is very real, and its momentary reality assures us that we are something more than animated clay.

That is why true lovers can never hope to go unobserved. The eyes of those who have seen the power and the glory of the world always betray them. They remain fixed on distant visions; and the rest of us must, in spite of ourselves, pay our tribute of a second glance in passing.

THE BIGGEST INDORSEMENT.

The American people have again, and this time by the biggest vote in the history of the republic, indorsed the Republican party and given into its keeping the affairs of this nation for another four years. The tremendous vote of confidence should make the Republican party more mindful than ever of its responsibility to its country. It should result in added vigilance that it may not be betrayed within its ranks. It must inspire the Republican party to an even higher aim in its conduct of our government.

To Herbert Hoover goes the honor of being the recipient of this greatest of all indorsements by the American people. The Republican party is certain that he is worthy of it and we may confidently look forward to an unprecedented era of prosperity and progress.

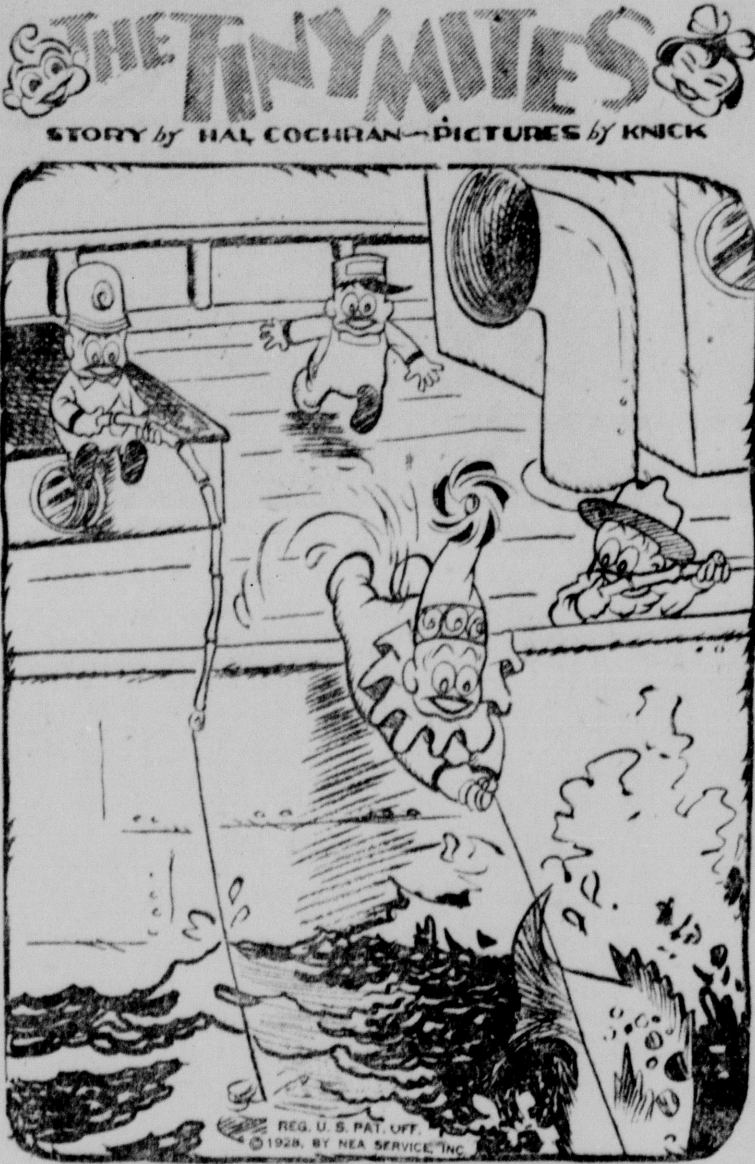

GOVERNOR EMMERSON.

Louis L. Emmerson's decisive victory in Tuesday's election adds another brilliant chapter to the successful story of his political career. It had been generally conceded that the Republican nominee for Governor would carry the state but the manner in which he swept through Democratic Chicago, as well as Cook County, must have been a shock to his opponents there.

Mr. Emmerson's long service in public life, his faculty of studying and correctly analyzing governmental problems, his splendid record as an executive, all have gone into the building of a character of power and ability that gives him special equipment for successfully filling the office to which has been elected.

We believe that Illinois is to be congratulated.

What is determination in your own life usually goes for obstinacy in someone else.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

At last the deck was scrubbed complete. The captain said, "That's very neat. You Tinymites know how to work when you apply yourselves. And now that you are really through, I'll tell you what I'll let you do. Down in the kitchen you can get some cakes out of the shelves." Up jumped the Timies, one by one, and Copy yelled, "That will be fun. The work has made me hungry and the cakes will sure taste good." In to the kitchen they all ran and found the cakes piled in a pan. There came a sudden scramble, and they all ate all they could.
"Now let's run to our bunk and rest," said Copy, "that sounds like the best idea I can think of. Both my arms and legs are sore." They reached the bunk and down they flopped. Then at their door the captain stopped. "How would you like to fish a bit?" they heard him loudly roar.
"Oh, great!" said Copy. "That's just fine. Where can we get a hook and line? And, too, we'll need a lot of bait to put on every hook." The captain smiled and said, "Don't fret. Those things will not be hard to get." And then he held a basket up, and shouted, "Take a look!"

The basket held most everything, and so the Timies had their fling at fishing from the railing of the ocean going ship. Up on the railing Clowny hopped, and in the sea his fishing line dropped. "Be careful," shouted Scouty. "Hang on tight, or you might slip."
Brave Clowny answered, "I'm all right." Just then he got a sudden bite. "Hurrah!" he cried. "We'll soon have fish. Just leave it all to me." The fish then played a sudden trick. It jumped and jerked the line real quick. Poor Clowny lost his balance, and was pulled into the sea.

Diphtheria is Childhood Peril

By William H. Slaughter, M. D.
Cleveland, Ohio
(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. The headquarters of the Gorgas Memorial are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

Diphtheria is pre-eminently a disease of young children, although infants and adults are not entirely free from attacks. In a study of diphtheria statistics, it is found that the children of the age group between one year and ten years contribute most largely to the number of cases of the disease and to the deaths from it.

Notwithstanding the fact that science has placed diphtheria antitoxin, perhaps the most effective curative agent known in medicine, in the hands of physicians to combat diphtheria, the disease continues to exact its toll in death. In the registration area of the United States, the death rate from diphtheria per 100,000 population was 43 in 1900 and 16.5 in 1917. According to McCollom, a very high authority on diphtheria in the Boston City Hospital, the death rate in 1892 and 1893 was nearly 50 per cent. Following the introduction of diphtheria antitoxin, the death rate from 1895 to 1912 has been below 15 per cent, and in 6,080 cases of more recent date, the death rate was 7.8 per cent.

The continued ravages of the disease may be ascribed to three things: first, the physician is not called early enough, and sometimes he is not called at all. Secondly, the physician may mistake the disease at first for some milder affection and thus delay in administering the only known remedy for the cure of the disease, namely, diphtheria antitoxin. To yield its maximum results, antitoxin must not only be given early in the attack, but must be given in full dosage. Thirdly, a large part of the population, especially ing during the period of the child's greatest susceptibility, or at least for several years.

The report of the American Public Health Association on the control of communicable disease, which report is approved and accepted by the United States Public Health Service, recommends "active immunization of all children by the end of the first year without prior Schick testing," and "active immunization of school children with or without prior use of the Schick test."

The active immunization of children with toxin-antitoxin mixture, as above outlined, is the main sheet anchor in the preservation of child life against the ravages of diphtheria.

ODE TO THE LADIES' AID SOCIETY

The greatest friend of every church. On whom the burdens always perch. No matter where'er you search— It is the Ladies' Aid.

Because the church yearns much for paint Some churchmen whine and almost faint, But from a few comes no complaint— The Ladies of the Aid.

They "shoulder arms" and then begin To have it painted out and in. The task soon ends and sure they win The helpful Ladies' Aid.

With brand new roof they have it clad, And when the furnaces are bad— You never see them wan nor sad— No, not the Ladies' Aid.

They grapple with that task, and then Are ready for new work again. Which always comes, no matter when, To greet the Ladies' Aid.

A carpet, new, the Ladies choose. Because the tramping of the shoes Wear out the old. No time to lose— The active Ladies' Aid.

Sometimes the pews are marred and dim. Who comes so promptly full of vim To put them back again in trim? Who, but the Ladies' Aid.

The hymn-books have been used so You'll hardly find a brand new song; To some, no fronts nor backs belong— Then, comes the Ladies' Aid.

They keep the parsonage in repairs; The clergyman gets books and chairs; And for his salary give their shares— The gracious Ladies' Aid.

Clothing and eggs, all kinds of fruit. They give whenever the time will suit To needy homes of good repute— The thoughtful Ladies' Aid.

In Olivet and Asgard Rest They show a humane interest; Lake Bluff and Deaconess' request— All answered by the Aid.

They give to this, they give to that; In fact, they're always "at the bat." A man must doff his haughty hat— And cheer the Ladies' Aid.

Their work will never reach its close; Their fame is sung in rhyme and prose; And churches all would decompose— Without the Ladies' Aid.

They have their marts and suppers, too; My, what a "spread" they lay for you; A culinary art review— By Ladies of the Aid.

While men-folks knit their brows and yawn, The Ladies use their brains and brawn. And may their help ne'er be withdrawn. God bless the Ladies' Aid.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL WILL BEGIN ON ARMISTICE DAY

Nation-Wide Drive for Great Organization Has Been Planned

During its annual Roll Call between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, the American Red Cross is asking the United States for five million members. This is not an unreasonable request when we stop to think that the goal set is less than 5 per cent of the population of the country. The Red Cross desires this membership primarily to restore to an effective basis its national funds, which have become depleted through extensive disaster relief. In the last two years the organization has made three appeals to the people for general contributions. But the National Red Cross does not want to make public appeals unless this method is absolutely necessary on account of the size of the catastrophe.

Within its last fiscal year it has financed from its treasury the Vermont disaster and the flood of last spring, known as the Arkansas-Missouri flood, but which really covered approximately one-half the area of the Mississippi overflow of last year. Then there are constantly small disasters, many of which are unknown outside their own states. There has not been one day from July 1, 1927, until July 1, 1928, that the National Red Cross has not been giving relief on one or more disasters. It has given $50,000.00 from its national treasury toward the present Florida-West Indies hurricane relief. During the last six years the organization's expenditures on disaster have exceeded its income set aside for this purpose by over one million dollars a year. Should this procedure continue, the present program of the Red Cross would have to be vastly curtailed. This necessary change of policy would in itself be a national calamity.

It has been carefully figured out that on a five million membership basis, or in other words, with an annual income of two and a half million dollars, fifty cents of each dollar membership being retained by Ashton Chapter and fifty cents being sent to the national organization, the National Red Cross will be able to continue its present program. By this method the organization is trying to put itself on a sound working basis, which policy is only good business.

It is felt that every adult in Lee county should and will lend active support to the Red Cross effort to continue its present plan of disaster relief. Should a serious calamity strike us we would turn at once to the Red Cross and we still want to feel assured that this organization, chartered by our government to give disaster relief, can continue to extend its service immediately and adequately, as it has done in the past.

OBITUARY

JOSHUA P. HOYLE

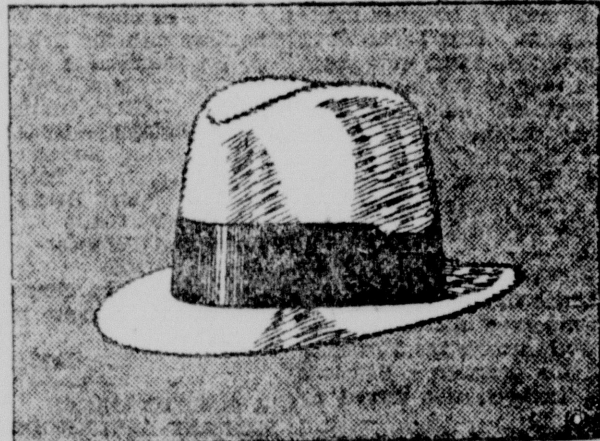

(Contributed)
Joshua Palmer Hoyle was born Dec. 4th, 1851, in Somerset, Pa., and died Nov. 2nd, 1928, at his home in Palmyra, aged 76 years, 10 months and 29 days. He came to Illinois at the age of 12 years and resided in Lee county the remainder of his life. He was married to Miss Julia Fritz on March 25th, 1873, who preceded him in death 29 years ago. To this union were born seven children, all living except one son, Wilson, who died at the age of one year. The following children mourn the loss of a loving father: three daughters Mrs. Frank Glessner, Mrs. Egford Etnyre and Mrs. Roy Lapham, and three sons: Lester, Bert and Fred Hoyle. There are also left to mourn his passing 13 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren, three sisters: Mrs. Sarah Ringler, Mrs. Alsuma Howard and Mrs. Mabel Shoemaker and two brothers: J. W. Hoyle and Peter Hoyle. Mr. Hoyle was highly esteemed by all who knew him for his upright and honorable character.

Charitable and kindly in his disposition toward others, he spoke kindly of every one. Affectionate and loyal to his family, his memory will ever be revered as that of a most beloved father and brother. Always an indefatigable worker, it was with reluctance that he ceased his active life, even after the infirmities of age overtook him. During the last few weeks of his life he was stricken with illness and suffering. He was patient and cheerful, thoughtful and considerate of those who cared for him during his illness. Rev. F. Brandellner, pastor of the Grace Evangelical church officiated at the funeral service. Burial took place at the Burket cemetery.

On Sunday next—Armistice Day—the Churches of Dixon will remember the soldiers who sleep amid the poppies of Flanders Fields, in their morning services by appropriate sermons. Thurs. Missionary meeting beginning at 10:30 a. m. and continuing through the afternoon. This is the annual Thankoffering service. Special program.

An enthusiastic audience, marking the progress of the Christian Life Conference, gave rapt attention to Rev. Lee Wilfred Ames, of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, as he discussed the burning question "Must Christians Sin?" Thursday evening.

The teacher is gathering his topics largely from the book of Romans. Speaking from chapters five and six, he said in part:

"The question before us this evening is, Shall the Christian continue living in the practice of sin? The sixth chapter of Romans gives us the divinely provided answer. Every man stands related either to Adam or to Christ, to Adam in condemnation or to Christ in justification.

"The believer in Christ is dead to sin. This is a fact, not of experience, but of the divine reckoning, intended to influence our experience. That is does not involve the automatic sinless perfection of Christians is patent from the accompanying exhortation not to yield to sin, which would be unnecessary if the capacity for sin were eliminated.

"The Christian's death to sin is a fact through his identification with Jesus Christ in his death on the cross. Before we existed God judged our sins, not yet committed, on his Son. Not only did Christ die for our sins, He also died to sin, and we died to sin with Him. Not that he ever could sin, but He did come into the realm of death on account of our sins. By His death and resurrection he is done forever with such a relation to sin. As He emerges from this realm He takes with him the believer in Christ, who is raised with Him that he may walk in newness of life. These are facts in the reckoning of God, concerning which we could never know but for His telling us.

"These facts become personal and practical to us as we first reckon them to be true and ourselves dead to sin but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord; second, let not sin reign over us, nor yield our members to the habits of sin.

GRAVEYARD RUINS WALL

OF CROMWELLIAN CHURCH
Wicken, England—(AP)—The 700-year-old church where Oliver Cromwell worshipped and where five members of the Cromwell family lie buried, is falling down.

Huge cracks, several feet long and a hand's width, have appeared in the stonework of the vestry and north-west aisle. Part of the aisle is falling one way and part the other.

The reason for the breakup of the historic parish church is that when the churchyard became overcrowded 50 years ago, fresh graves were dug on top of the old tombs outside the north-west aisle. The ground there is honeycombed with graves, and the out-thrust of the church walls meets with no resistance.

LEAGUE DELEGATES WILL

MAKE VISIT TO NANKING

Geneva—(AP)—The League of Nations has decided to get acquainted with new China. The Chinese government has just notified Sir Eric that it welcomes the proposal. The date of the mission is yet to be arranged.

PEOPLE OF WEST BRANCH STAGED GREAT JUBILEE

Birthplace of President-Elect Scene of Big Celebration

West Branch, Iowa, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Dynamite bombs, exploded at daylight Thursday brought the citizens of this little Quaker town, the place of Herbert Hoover's birth, to their feet for the noisiest celebration the town has ever experienced.

Before noon several thousand persons had arrived to join in the festivities which started at 1 P. M.

At noon the noise began in earnest as the parade formed for the march to the home in which Herbert Hoover was born and where the afternoon's program was held.

Headed by a band of West Liberty people from nearly every town in Cedar county and from many towns outside staged a joyous demonstration as they marched to the front yard of the old homestead.

There, Dr. L. J. Meek took charge of things and quitted the crowd for the program of speaking. The Rev. G. W. Hardy, pastor of the Friends church, the same church that Hoover's mother preached in, and first cousin of the President-elect, offered a prayer.

This was followed by speeches by Congressman Cyrenus Cole and Governor John Hammill.

Senator Smith Brookhart was prevented from attending by business in Washington.

(AP)—Herbert Hoover, President-Elect, found himself much rested after the first real night's rest he has had in many weeks.
The fatigue which was so plainly noticeable Wednesday seemed to have been relieved, but he intended to follow a regime of complete rest for himself during the remainder of this week.
Advised by Governor John Hammill that the people of his birth place, West Branch, Iowa, were celebrating his election, Hoover sent this message to the Governor at West Branch:
"Will you convey my greetings to the people of West Branch and the state of Iowa? I am deeply grateful for the support my native state has given to the cause of our party and for the neighborly friendship they have shown to me."

ACCIDENT TOO MUCH FOR WEST-ERN WRANGLER

Leaves Dixon in Bus Which Was Wrecked in Tragedy

William Dunlap, a western wrangler from Dubois, Wyo., was a passenger on the Big Four bus which was wrecked Wednesday afternoon west of the city in an accidental crash in which three lives were lost. Dunlap was on his way to Ginter, Pa., to visit his parents whom he had not seen for eight years. He left Dixon last evening, a passenger on the wrecked bus, accompanying a driver who took the bus back to Omaha, Neb. Dunlap, who for years has followed the western ranch life, piloting "dude" outfits through the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming, and working in Yellowstone Park would not resume his trip eastward. The accident had completely unnerved him.

"We don't have these accidents out our way and this was more than I can stand. I thought a long time before I decided to start east and then left to surprise the folks on my vacation. They were not expecting me, so they won't miss me if I don't show up, so I am going back to the Jackson Hole country just as fast as I can get there," Dunlap said.

Two other passengers on the bus, who were enroute to Chicago from Omaha, one a Negro, left the scene of the accident as soon as they were able to extricate their baggage and have not been seen since. Both were badly frightened at the sight of the three bleeding men and started walking eastward from the scene of the crash. Another bus was sent out from Chicago and took the remaining passengers to the city. An extra driver was also sent to Dixon to drive the wrecked bus to the company's repair shops at Omaha.

Indiana Gave Hoover Its Biggest Margin

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, Republican, who Tuesday was elected as the next President of the United States, was given a total of 844,213 votes in Indiana, as compared with 562,198 for Governor Al Smith, Democrat, according to complete, unofficial figures tabulated today.

The plurality over Smith was 282,015, the largest ever given a presidential nominee by the Hoosier electorate. As a result of his victory, Hoover will get Indiana's fifteen votes in the Electoral College.

Hoover Lead in Iowa Continues to Mount

Des Moines, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover's lead in Iowa mounted to more than 225,000 today when all but some 200 scattering precincts had reported the results of Tuesday's election.

The returns, from 2,247 precincts out of 2,450 gave Hoover 575,352 votes to Smith's 350,002.

PRESIDENT-ELECT MOST HONORED OF CHIEF EXECUTIVES

Has Been Showered With High Honors by Many Foreign Nations

Washington—Herbert Hoover has been elected to public office for the first time in his life.

But—He has received more non-political honors than any other man ever chosen for the White House.

He has had more gold medals pinned on him than any other president-elect.

He has received the freedom of more cities.

He has been made an honorary citizen of more foreign nations.

He has donned cap and gown for more honorary degrees.

He has held more chairmanships and honorary memberships.

In short, the world's highest political honor has now been given to a man who has served with almost unparalleled distinction in altogether different work.

To elect him the people of the United States passed over a man of 25 years' political experience in the greatest of the states, with an unduplicated record as a vote getter.

First Since Jefferson

America has produced her citizens of the world before, but since the day of Thomas Jefferson she has never elected one to the presidency except for Hoover.

Europe and the United States appear to have competed to see who could heap the most honors on Hoover during the last 14 years.

He has had gold medals from the government of Belgium for his services while administering war relief to the kingdom, and another from the University of Vienna for his humanitarian services all over Europe.

Belgium, Finland, Estonia and Poland have given him honorary citizenship. The freedom of so many continental cities has been conferred on him that no one has kept track of the number. The cities of Lille and Warsaw also struck gold medals for him.

Honorary degrees in recognition of his relief work have come from the Universities of Liege, Brussels, Warsaw, Cracow, Oxford, Manchester, Prague, Ghent, Lemberg and Levov.

Abroad he has been chairman of the Allied Food Council, European Food Council, European Coal Council and European Relief Council.

Probably there is no complete record of all the honors that have come to Hoover in foreign lands, but those are the more important ones.

Now let's see how his own country has treated him.

Loaded With Medals

He has gold medals from the Mining and Metallurgical Society of America for contributions to technical science, from the Institute of Mining Engineers for engineering achievements, from the National Institute of Social Sciences for public service, from the Civic Forum for the same thing, from the National Academy of Sciences for contributions to the advancement of science and from the Roosevelt Memorial Association, again for public service.

He has been elected to honorary membership in the American Institute of Mining Engineers, the Canadian Mining Institute, the Engineers Club of New York, the Engineers Club of Philadelphia, the American Institute of Architects, the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Western Society of Engineers and the Rotary clubs.

European and American colleges and universities have given him 26 honorary degrees, it is estimated. Among the American institutions are Yale, Harvard, Brown, Princeton, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, Johns Hopkins, Boston, George Washington, Rutgers, Alabama, Virginia, Tufts, Swarthmore, Rensselaer and Williams.

Held Many Jobs

At the time he resigned as secretary of commerce to campaign for election he was president of the American Child Health Association and honorary president of the Isaac Walton League, chairman of the American Relief Association's Children Fund, Belgian Relief Educational Association, St. Lawrence Waterway Commission and Better Homes in America and a trustee of the Carnegie Institute and Stanford University.

His past jobs include: President of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, American Engineering Council, International Radio Conference and National Conference on Street and Highway Safety; chairman of the American Relief Administration, Belgian Relief Commission, U. S. Food Administration Grain Corporation, U. S. Sugar Equalization Board, National Radio Conference, National Committee on Wood Utilization, Harding Unemployment Conference, Colorado River Commission and American Relief Administration in Germany, Poland, Russia, Lithuania, Estonia, Finland, Latvia, Serbia, Czechoslovakia, Armenia, Rumania, Austria and Hungary; U. S. Food Administrator; vice chairman of the Second Labor Conference, and a member of the War Council, World War Debt Commission and the advisory board at the Washington Arms Conference.

Some day, no doubt, someone will compile a complete list.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—Plans are being perfected for Rochelle high school's second annual homecoming game at the high school athletic field, Saturday afternoon, when Rochelle will battle with Dixon for the right to stay in the Rock River Valley Conference race.

Amboy and Mendota meet Monday and one or the other will probably be eliminated and should Mendota win Rochelle and Mendota will meet for the title at Mendota, Thanksgiving Day.

The Homecoming program is under the direction of E. O. Miller who announces the program as follows:

Friday—4:00 P. M. Freshman-Sophomore class rush.

Friday—7:30 P. M. Monster bonfire and pep meeting on the high school campus.

Saturday—10:00 A. M. Hobo parade. All organizations of the high school will be represented in the parade, in addition to many individual entries. Prizes will be awarded to the cleverest and funniest representations. The column will pass through the principal streets and will attract considerable attention.

Saturday—1:45 P. M. A parade of trucks will "tell the world" that something is about to happen at the high school. The two teams will be taken to the field in new automobiles and the Rochelle Municipal Band will act as an escort.

Saturday—2:30 P. M. Rochelle vs Dixon on the athletic field gridiron.

9:00 P. M.—Dancing party at the Woodman hall. Gene's Band will furnish the music.

The local newspapers are carrying full page adds for publicity on the celebration, merchants will decorate their stores and invitations have been mailed out to out-of-town alumni.

Rochelle's record so far this season follows:

Sept. 21—Rochelle 7, DeKalb 6.

Sept. 28—Rochelle 33, Genoa 12.

Oct. 6—Rochelle 12, Sandwich 0.

★ As you cook fritters a few at a time, so Hills Bros. roast coffee by a continuous process a few pounds at a time.

A few fritters at a time in the hot fat permits each one to turn out uniformly crisp, brown and delicious. Controlled Roasting creates similar results in Hills Bros. Coffee. Every berry is roasted evenly. Uniform aroma and flavor such as you won't find in any other coffee are assured. Tasting is believing.

The coffee-critical West prefers Hills Bros. Coffee because it brings complete satisfaction in every cup. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab on the can. Hills Bros. Coffee is always packed in vacuum.

The Challenge Flavor Test proves that even these supermen cannot, through their sense of taste, choose between the most expensive spread-for-bread and Jelke GOOD LUCK Margarine.

Over and over the Challenge Test teaches the same powerful lesson—how YOU can greatly reduce your food bills by using GOOD LUCK exclusively on your table and for cooking and baking.

MARGARINE

NO other profession requires the keenly developed senses and perfect co-ordination of nerves demanded of the intrepid air pilots who daily, through all kinds of weather, fly from Chicago to the four corners of the land.

Foremost of the great lines carrying mail and passengers is the National Air Transport Company. Above is shown one of its planes at the Chicago Municipal Airport. In the foreground a group of aviators are making the famous Challenge Flavor Test.

Having been served with samples of both, they were asked to tell which they had tasted first—whether Jelke GOOD LUCK or the most expensive spread-for-bread.

And again was exploded a false notion held by some housekeepers, for none could answer. Not one could tell which was which.

THEVES TOOK DIAMOND

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 8—(AP)—Oscar Danziken, official of a local packing company, last night was held up by two men as he was driving into his garage, and robbed of a valuable diamond and $75.

The robbers bound and gagged Danziken, after which one of them drove in the Danziken car toward Springfield, taking Danziken with him. About fifteen miles from Decatur, the car ran out of gasoline. When the other robber arrived in another car they gave $3 back to Danziken and drove on toward Springfield.

O'Donnell Suspects
Foes Plan Poison

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Edward (Spike) O'Donnell, who thrice this year has had narrow escapes from machine gun and pistol attempts against his life, believes his enemies have resorted to poisoning to strike at him.

Spike's brother, Tommy, was stricken blind overnight three weeks ago. At present he is in a Rochester, Minn., hospital where it was reported his eyesight is returning, without danger of permanent blindness. Spike O'Donnell told police he believed his brother was poisoned.

"Any way you look at it, it looks wrong," he said. "Tommy went to bed one night with nothing the matter, and woke up blind. I think somebody put something in his milk to kill him."

Tommy, it was explained, has been on a milk diet for treatment of stomach trouble. Spike said he thought someone had switched milk bottles on the O'Donnell's back porch leaving a bottle containing poison.

RUSSIAN ARCHEOLOGISTS FIND IMPORTANT RUINS
Odessa.—(AP)—Archeological excavations near Nikolaev this year have yielded exceptionally important results. There was discovered a broad street with sidewalks and remnants of buildings dating from the sixth century.
Workers also found a block of Hel-ed about 6,000 objects of historical interest, including crockery, accessories of religious rituals and rare fragments. Forty Russian archeolo-

OBREGON'S SLAYER SENTENCED TO DIE; NUN GETS 20 YEARS

Verdict of Jury Meets with Cheers from Great
Crowds

San Angel, Mexico, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Jose De Leon Toral, under sentence of death for the assassination of General Alvaro Obregon, today remained firm in his assertion that the verdict held no terrors for him.

Mother Concepcion Aceveda de la Lata, tried jointly with the young art student, was convicted of being the "intellectual author" of the crime yesterday and sentenced to twenty years imprisonment.

One thousand persons cheered the jury when the verdict was returned.

Willing to Die
Ever since his arrest on July 17 immediately after slaying General Obregon, Toral has maintained that he is willing to die. He reiterated this as the trial closed. His hope, he added, was that the Mexican people would forget their hatreds.

Attorney Sodi of the defense counsel announced that he would appeal to the Mexican Court. He was allowed five days to perfect this appeal. Should the San Angel court's verdict be upheld the date and place of Toral's execution will be fixed by the Governor of the Federal District.

The courtroom resembled a garrison when the trial was concluded. The jury of nine men, mostly laborers, was out an hour and forty minutes. The verdict was radiocast.

Jury Unanimous
The jury was unanimous in Toral's case.

Mother Concepcion was found guilty by a vote of eight to one, a majority verdict under Mexican law being sufficient to convict. She dropped her eyes and sat motionless.

When sentences were imposed everybody in the courtroom stood. From the outside came the cheers of the crowd. Officers drew their swords and saluted as the blades flashed in the late afternoon light. Policemen stood at attention and saluted.

Toral arose. "May I speak?" he asked.

"No, you can speak later," the judge answered.

Jurors Asked Guards
The guards formed quickly around Toral and Mother Concepcion. Before they could be led off a spokesman for the jury rose. He asked the Judge to give the jurymen guards to escort them to their homes. Many of the jurymen had been coming to the trial armed since threats had been made against them.

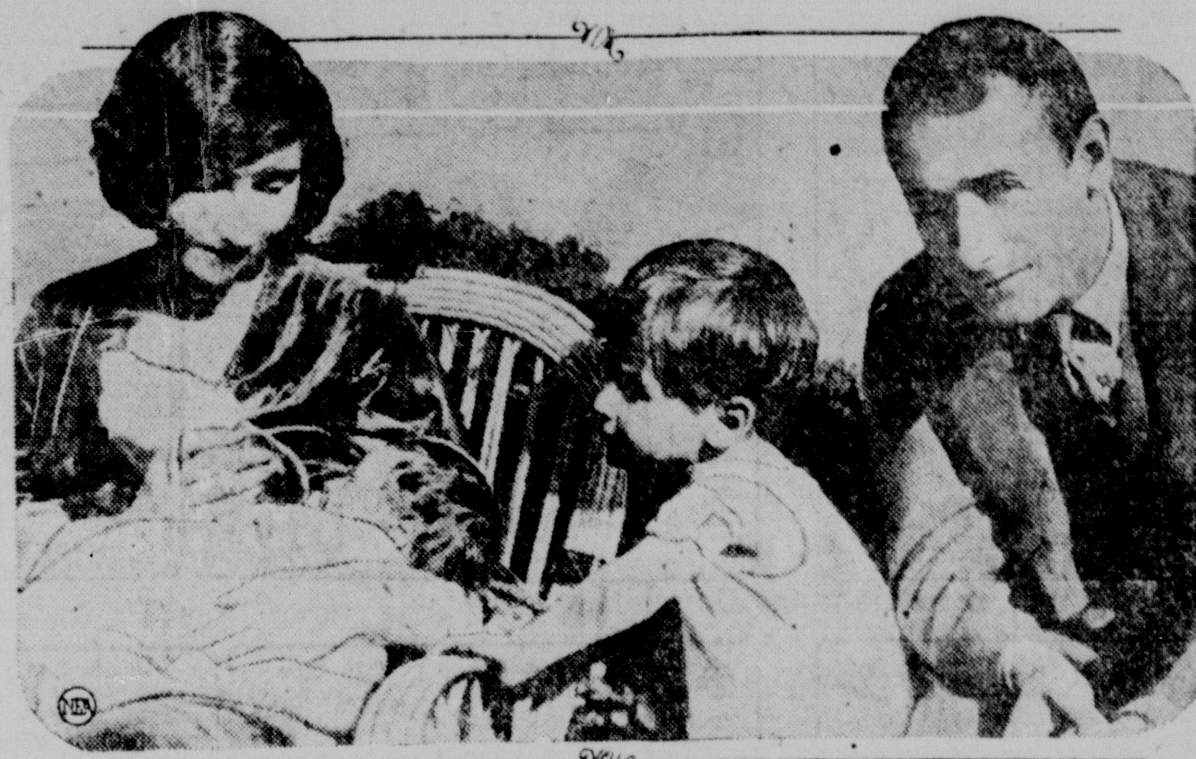

The judge replied that a guard was unnecessary. The jurymen insisted, saying "there are lots of fanatics around."

"You have performed your duty and returned a fair verdict," the judge said. "The nation applauds you and you do not need guards."

The jurymen departed unguarded.

Through double rows of troops bristling with weapons Toral and Mother Concepcion were led from the room for the journey to San Angel prison.

Children Killed in Fall From Skyscraper Home

While Mrs. Hazel Waldman of New York City was visiting at a friend's home on the roof of a New York skyscraper, her two children, Benjamin and Terrence, were killed in a fall to the roof of another building, far below. Mrs. Waldman says that while she was holding the baby, the other child, in playing, knocked the infant from her arms, and both children fell from the roof. Mrs. Waldman, the two children and the father, Milton Waldman, newspaper man, are pictured above.

OBITUARY

CHARLES W. PLOCK
(Contributed)

Charles W. Plock was born in Schmitt, Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, on December 15, 1853, and departed this life Nov. 5th, 1928 at the age of 74 years, 10 months and 20 days. With his parents and large company of friends he came to America, the new country of opportunity and freedom, arriving at Polo, Illinois, on July 8th, 1857. They went directly to Rock Creek township where he grew to manhood, later living in Chadwick, Lanark and in 1901 came to Dixon, where he with his family have lived ever since.

He was married to Emma Seim of Fair Haven Township, Carroll County, Illinois, January 14, 1876, and enjoyed over 52 years of wedded life. They celebrated their Golden Wedding Jan. 15, 1927. To this union were born seven children, all of whom with the beloved wife mourn the loss of father and husband. Charles Plock was the last of a family of five children: John, Dorothy, Henry Plock, and Mrs. Catherine Plock Barthel.

The following children survive: Fred W. of Flint, Mich.; Edward H. Roy, Charles H., and Flave W. and Mrs. Emma A. Klosterman all of Dixon, Ill.; and Mrs. Clara A. Miller of Cedar Falls, Iowa, the latter having been at home with the parents helping to care for her father during his long illness. Ten grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends mourn the loss of a loved one and friend. Mr. Plock was a faithful husband and a kind father. He was widely known and had a large circle of friends wherever he lived.

FIRE DESTROYED INN
WHERE DICKENS DINED
London.—(AP)—Another link with Charles Dickens has disappeared in the burning of an old coffee shanty at Greenwich on the banks of the Thames, known as "Henry's Hut."

For more than seventy years the hut has provided light refreshments for sea-faring men, and it is recorded that Charles Dickens sheltered there from a blizzard. He commended the proprietor on the excellence of the coffee.

ENTHRONEMENT OF JAPAN'S EMPEROR IS COSTLY DISPLAY

Will Cost Empire and the Royal Family Sum of $12,000,000

Kyoto, Japan, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The enthronement of the Emperor of Japan, the oldest and most solemn state ceremony surviving among the modern great powers, is also the most costly. But it is also the occasion of a regal distribution of largesse, honors, titles and gifts unequalled in any other state.

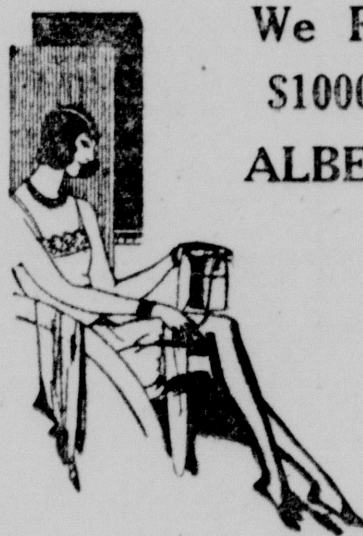

According to the preliminary estimates it will cost the Japanese government and the Imperial family together approximately 24,000,000 yen (about $12,000,000) to celebrate the accession of Hirohito, 124th emperor, in a manner deemed fitting to the august position to which he has succeeded. The principal ceremony will be held tomorrow.

The high costs of the enthronement are due to the long period covered by the series of ceremonies; by the outlays necessary to produce in great detail and in the finest possible materials a pageant as nearly as possible like that of the ancient court of Kyoto; by the tremendous mobilization of police and other guardians of the peace to insure absolute safety to the person of the Emperor; and a entire tranquility throughout the realm during this auspicious period; by the construction of many buildings that will never be used again.

WOOSUNG MAN GIVEN BIGGEST OGLE CO. VOTE

But Rockford Plumpers Beat Wilson for Representative

Oregon, Ill.—Though he failed of election Tuesday, Frank B. Wilson, Woosung democratic aspirant for member of the legislature, tenth district, was given the largest vote ever received in Ogle county by a democratic candidate for the state legislature in the district. Wilson, Woosung supervisor, was defeated in his uphill race for a seat at Springfield by the city vote in Rockford, according to figures compiled by Sidney J. Hass, county clerk of Ogle county.

Mr. Wilson's vote in Ogle was 13,268. He led his nearest opponent, David Hunter, of Rockford, nearly two to one in Ogle county precincts. The total that he had secured in Winnebago county outside of Rockford led friends to believe that his election had been assured.

Then came the Rockford flood of votes that submerged the Ogle candidate. Mr. Wilson received something more than 9,000 votes as compared to 25,000 for Green, Hunter and Emmet Wilson, his three republican opponents, all of whom garnered a lead in the city that Ogle's tremendous majority could not overcome.

The result was a question until the city vote in Rockford was announced. They ate in Ogle county Tuesday had been predicted at 12,000, a new record. It exceeded that, returns prove. There were 12,499 voters who cast their ballots for president in the two major parties.

DIVORCES PRINCE
Paris, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Princess Murat, born Helena McDonald Stallo of Cincinnati, has been awarded a divorce from Prince Michel Joachim Murat on the ground of abandonment. She married, the descendant of Napoleon's general and the King of Naples at Paris on February 13, 1913.

There is also the wide distribution of imperial gifts and honors. The Emperor this year was expected to make donations to various groups of philanthropy totalling $15,000,000 yen. This would include hospitals, schools, social service organizations and direct relief to the poor. Besides this there will be the distribution of approximately 475,000 "old age" cups to all subjects of the empire of 80 years or over. An effort is made to see that no subject who has deserved well of his sovereign is forgotten at this time.

COLOMBIA PAYS HIGH FOR HER OWN GASOLINE
Bogota, Colombia.—(AP)—Although petroleum is produced and refined only a few hundred miles away, Bogota motor car owners pay between 80 and 90 cents a gallon for gasoline while the cost of kerosene ranges from 60 to 70 cents.

The cost of transportation is given as the reason. The products must be transferred from water to rail several times before reaching their destination.

PRESIDENT-ELECT FINDS POLITICAL PROBLEMS WAITING

Future Organization in Southern States Demands Attention

Stanford University, Calif., Nov. 9.—(AP)—Assessing the effect of the tidal wave which has swept him into the Presidency, Herbert Hoover finds that victory has brought him new problems quite apart from those he must shoulder as the Chief Executive.

These are political in character, and as the head of his party the decision as to dealing with them rests with him. Foremost among them is the future organization in the southern states, involving extensive expansion and some re-alignments south of the Mason and Dixon line.

Astute leader that he is, the President-elect has been fully aware of the factors contributing to the political revolution there—a revolution which surprised him as much as it did the country as a whole. However, latest returns show that in some of the states which threw their electoral votes to him, the Republican trend extended into the Congressional field, with the election of candidates of his own party in districts which heretofore have been strongly Democratic.

To Consolidate Gains

One of the high hopes Hoover entertained during the campaign was that sectional lines might be broken down, and consequently his friends look upon it as only a natural consequence of the election that he should take steps to consolidate as far as possible the ground that has been gained. The creation of a more extensive organization in the southern states was one of the first concerns in his campaign, and under his personal direction a southern division of the Republican national organization was set up under the direction of Horace A. Mann.

This division brought about changes in the character of state organizations, and it is interpreted that the work undertaken within the limited time permitted during the campaign will be extended. Just how this will be done is for future determination, as the President-elect is keeping his mind free from political problems as much as possible during his period of rest and quiet. This period not only is one of rest, but also of adjustments to another role that has come to him in his eventful career, which has taken him into many lines of service at home and abroad.

Watchers Worry Him

Like most other men who have been elected to the Presidency, he finds it a little difficult to submit to constant watch by Secret Service agents all the time he is away from home, and to have his residence constantly under guard. Heretofore, Hoover has roamed the hills about his home unmolested and has delighted in getting away with Mrs. Hoover for an hour or more of automobile driving unattended.

But now, as his car sets out for a run over the President-elect's favorite driveway, another car bearing the Secret Service men trails closely behind.

Ordinance Division of War Dept. Busy

Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Although peace prevails, the Ordinance Division of the War Department is keeping pace with the development of ordnance and equipment in other countries.

Major General Clarence C. Williams has informed Secretary of War Davis in his annual report that extensive studies of mobilization plans, anti-aircraft machine guns, cross-country transportation equipment and efforts to develop a semi-automatic rifle for the individual soldier have been carried on with a fair degree of success.

"During the past year much progress has been made in the plans for re-armament with the latest type weapons in case of a major emergency," General Williams reported.

"Under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of War, great progress has been made in the readjustment of production schedules to the civilian industrial plans through the agency of procurement districts."

NOT SO SLOW, EITHER!

Today's letter golf hole starts out a little SLOW and apparently keeps up that PACE until the end. At the same time it requires some pretty fair letter golfing. Par is seven and one solution is on page 11.

S	L	O	W
P	A	C	E

THE RULES

1.—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN.

2.—You can change only one letter at a time.

3.—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each pump. Strange words and abbreviations don't count.

4.—The order of letters cannot be changed.

One solution is printed in page 11.

FELT LIKE AWFUL WEIGHT DRAWING DOWN HER BACK

Trying Some Medicine or Treatment Almost 4 Years; New Gly-Cas a Blessing.

The creator of this amazing new Gly-Cas compound at the White Cross Pharmacy, Dixon, had as his aim, and was not satisfied until this great herbal preparation was brought to a state of efficacy which would enable it to give complete and thorough relief in cases of stomach, liver, bowel, blood, nerve troubles, which other medicines had flatly failed to reach. In thousands of cases, hundreds of them right here in this section, Gly-Cas has accomplished this end. For example just recently, Mrs. R. Williams, 517 Van Buren Ave., Dixon, said:

THE GLY-CAS MAN.

"I had suffered from kidney and bladder disorders for nearly four years and was constantly using some preparation or treatment, but where all the other medicines failed me, this Gly-Cas has given me relief.

"There seemed to be weight in the small of my back and sharp, piercing pains would extend to my shoulders and even down into my limbs," she continued. "I also had dizzy spells and frequently a feeling of weakness would come over me. I realized that I was slowly, but surely, getting in a worse condition.

"Continuing to hear recommendations for Gly-Cas from persons I knew, I decided to try the medicine and I am indeed grateful for the excellent benefits I have now received. Gly-Cas has actually taken that terrible aching and those piercing pains from my back and limbs. The dizziness and weak spells have all been ended, too. In short, the poisons that were causing my suffering have been eliminated.

"Gly-Cas has given me such satisfaction that I can endorse it above all other medicines. It has truly made me feel like a new person."

Gly-Cas sold in Dixon at the Campbell White Cross Pharmacy, 501 Franklin Grove, G. S. Ives, Polo, C. R. Clothier, Ashton, G. R. Charter, Amboy, Aschenbrenner Drug, Compton, W. H. Hills, Rochelle, Barker & Sullivan and by leading druggists in all surrounding towns.—Adv.

North Dakota Team is After Scoring Honors

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The University of North Dakota's gridiron juggernaut, ranking favorite to win the North Central Conference championship, has entered its claim for 1928 scoring and defensive honors.

Coached by Jack West, former middlewestern hurdle star, the flackertails have rolled up 181 points in six games as against 13 by their opponents. Their earliest victories were against Manitoba, University of Canada, 52 to 0, and Jamestown, N. D., College, 80 to 0. The only blemish on the record is a scoreless tie played with Carleton College of Northfield, Minn.

The flackertails can win the North Central title tomorrow by defeating the University of South Dakota.

High Society

1928 by NEA Service Inc. RUTH DEWEY GROVES AUTHOR OF "WHEN A GIRL LOVES" "LOVE FOR TWO" etc.

THIS HAS HAPPENED

Fate introduced JERRY RAY, a shaggy, to wealthy ALESTER CARSTAIRS when he crashes his airplane into the camp where he is sharing with her roommate, MIVETIE. Her heart responds to his pilot, MAN HARVEY, but ALESTER is struck by her beauty and showers attentions upon her. A letter from her mother revealing poverty and illness strengthens Jerry's determination to try to marry money.

Unable to buy a gown for the party ALESTER has invited her to, Jerry yields to the temptation to take one from the store—intending to slip it back next morning. At the party LEONATINE LEHALDY, who is infatuated with ALESTER, is responsible for the dress being ruined.

She confesses to the manager. Aho discharges her. She seeks another job, and is surprised one evening when Dan calls. He proposes and she tells him love is a delusion and that she intends to marry for money. He leaves after trying to warn her.

ALESTER phones that he has a surprise, and takes her to the deserted summer camp where he has a servant attend a feast. He gives her orchids and a ring—along with a proposal which stuns Jerry. She repulses his insult and he seizes her in his arms. She is frightened until she hears Dan's whistle along the beach.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXII "WHY, hello!"

"This words were spoken in pleasant surprise. Dan Harvey stood on the steps and greeted ALESTER and Jerry so. But his eyes flickered keenly about the scene before him.

Jerry sat quietly on the hammock seeking enough self control to enable her to speak to him calmly. ALESTER covered her silence with a casual: "Oh, hello, Dan. What brings you here?"

"Well," he said, "I happened to hear you tell Marsh to leave these things here. I was out in the catboat, amusing myself around the point, when I thought I saw a light over here."

"Nonsense," ALESTER broke in rudely, "we haven't had a light."

"Thought it might be a tramp," Dan went on evenly, taking no notice of the interruption. "Must have been the reflection of the sun on the windows."

ALESTER scowled at him. "We've plenty of watchmen," he said shortly. "If necessary I'll send one over to guard the place."

DAN seemed not at all impressed with the curtness of his employer's words.

"There was another reason why I came," he said, and Jerry noted a change in his voice. "I telephoned Miss Ray's home to inquire if she had suffered any ill effects from her . . . immersion . . . and someone told me she had gone out."

"It occurred to me, this being the first Sunday since they left, that she and Miss Crane might have come back to get something they'd forgotten. People often leave things," he added, with full appreciation of the absurdity of his words.

He knew by ALESTER's scowling expression that he appreciated it, too. He hoped Jerry would understand also. She did. And the understanding brought the red of shame to her cheeks.

He didn't still chaperoning her! He didn't think she could take care of herself! She forgot, for a few seconds, how she had welcomed his whistle not more than five minutes ago. Then she remembered, and her eyes turned away from him.

"At any rate I'm glad to know that Miss Ray is safe," he said, with a seriousness for which ALESTER could have choked him had it been possible. Jerry said nothing. She was jamming her hat down over her eyes in haste, fearful lest Dan leave before she could use his presence to compel ALESTER to take her home.

TAKE her home! Would he? Might he not insist upon driving to the Rolling Stone Inn or somewhere else? That was a chance she must take, for nothing short of abject fear of him could cause her to appeal to Dan for further protection. Once they were on the highway she would be safe enough.

Jerry left without saying more than a bare "good night" to Dan, but halfway to the gate she turned suddenly and waved her hand at him. If he wanted to take it as a gesture of gratitude, let him. She'd have liked to thank him . . . only he had made her feel so cheap the night before, when he had abused the word as you have done. Anyway, I don't want to talk about it," she continued hurriedly as ALESTER started to speak. "I've got to think about tomorrow. You've caused me enough trouble already. I lost my job because . . . she broke off, sorry she had said so much.

But it was too late. ALESTER plied her with questions until he had the story of the tunic from her unwilling lips.

"You've got to let me do something for you," he exclaimed when she finished.

Jerry said no, very firmly. "Do you enjoy making me feel like a cat?" ALESTER reproached her.

"You might ask yourself about that," Jerry retorted. "I can't help know. But you've got to remember that I took it for granted that a girl of your class doesn't expect to marry into mine. That's brutally frank, but I can't help it; it's what I've learned from the world."

"Your world, you mean," Jerry corrected acidly.

"Yes," ALESTER admitted; "my world, but that's my excuse—I was trained in a world of people who know that money can buy nearly everything. I made the mistake of thinking it would buy everything."

"You weren't in any more danger with any other man who loved you as I do."

"As you do," Jerry repeated meaningfully. "That's just it, ALESTER. You've criticized me for not believing in love; well, I'd rather not believe in it at all than abuse the word as you have done. Anyway, I don't want to talk about it," she continued hurriedly as ALESTER started to speak. "I've got to think about tomorrow. You've caused me enough trouble already. I lost my job because . . . she broke off, sorry she had said so much.

But it was too late. ALESTER plied her with questions until he had the story of the tunic from her unwilling lips.

"You've got to let me do something for you," he exclaimed when she finished.

Jerry said no, very firmly. "Do you enjoy making me feel like a cat?" ALESTER reproached her.

"You might ask yourself about that," Jerry retorted. "I can't help it if you feel natural."

"Just the same I'm going to do something about it," he returned. "Oh, not with money," he added quickly to forestall an expected protest. "But I have some influence in a field where you ought to be able to make a name for yourself if you have any talent at all."

JERRY looked at him inquiringly. J. skeptically. He saw that she did not trust him.

"There's no catch," he assured her. "I just happen to have a friend in the theatrical business, the producing end of it. Pulled him out of a hole last year and he hasn't forgotten it. So far I've not asked any favors for my help but I'm going to see him about a place for you in his chorus. He's putting on a new show this fall."

"But I don't know anything about the stage," Jerry exclaimed.

News From Grid Camps of Large Schools of West

BY PAUL R. MICKELSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—A tow-headed sophomore, Oran Pape, who can run the length of the gridiron in less than 10 seconds and not that giant Indian line crusher, Mayer McLain, worries Ohio State as it marshals its forces for its championship elimination combat with Iowa tomorrow.

Pape, who in about 40 minutes of work all season has taken the lead in individual scoring in the Big Ten by making eight touchdowns, has been the subject of long lectures by Coach Jack Wilce of Ohio all week.

Given any kind of interference and once past the line of scrimmage, Pape is an extremely hard man to catch or stop. Like "Red" Grange he can wiggle away from tacklers, and on an open field he is even faster.

With every player except Farroh, blocking back and star pass receiver, in good physical condition, Coach Burt Ingwersen and his squad of 28 Iowans were enroute to Columbus today. Ohio is considerably battered by injuries, and Fred Barratt, giant center, and Leo Raskowski, star tackle, may not get into the game. Upwards of 82,000 spectators are expected to jam Ohio stadium for the battle between the two undefeated eleven, the winner of which will have undisputed possession of first place in the conference standings.

Minus the services of "Dynamite Joe" Gembris, its crashing fullback and field goal kicker, who was stricken with an attack of appendicitis, a squad of 28 Michigan players was en route to Baltimore today where they tackle the Navy in the only intersection game on the Big Ten's card tomorrow.

The crippled list at Chicago is growing again, and the outlook was dark for an upset over Wisconsin. Bob Spence, veteran end, is out of the game with a bad knee and it is unlikely that Captain Saul Weislow and Proudfoot, tackles, will start. Ken Small, center, may get into the clash.

Wisconsin ended its preparation for the game without a single scrimmage all week. Chicago's flank and weak side spinning plays bothered the Badgers.

Northwestern's second serious injury of the season was reported yesterday when Larry Oliphant, sophomore end, was definitely taken off the team because of a bad leg. The Wildcats have polished up their aerial attack for Purdue, which is expected to arrive tonight. Coach Jimmie Phelan of Purdue expected to start a veteran team against Northwestern with "Pest" Welch and Glen Harnesmon, backfield acres, supported by Al Guthrie and Ed Caraway.

The Minnesota-Indiana game at Minneapolis will be a contest of cripples. Each team is badly battered, although Bronko Nagurski of the Gophers may start at tackle instead of fullback. Twenty-five Hoosiers invaded Minneapolis today.

Illinois leaves for Indianapolis and the Butler game tomorrow, but the reserves are expected to do most of the work, with the regulars worrying about the Michigan game. Coach Bob Zuppke thought Michigan knew too much about Illini plays, so he trained his players secretly last night.

YES, SILENCE IS GOLDEN

Irving Nelson, a substitute quarterback at Iowa, who had quit the squad two days before, was rushed into the Minnesota game to kick for the point after touchdown that would win the game. He drop-kicked.

CIGAR NICKELS MADE OF GOLD

Try This 5c Cigar and See

Maybe you think the only good cigar is a high-priced cigar. Well, here's one that'll change your mind: Havana Ribbon. It's a nickel cigar. And a glorious smoke it is! Cool and fragrant. Mellow-mild. Crowded with the golden flavor of tobacco at its best—when it is fully ripe.

Think of it! Nickel cigars, as a rule, have the reputation of being made of tobacco odds-and-ends—"scraps," bitter under-ripe top leaves, flat-tasting over-ripe bottom leaves of tobacco plants, and what not. But in Havana Ribbon you get nothing but true-tasting, flavorful, long-filler, fully-ripe middle leaves.

What makes such value possible? The millions who smoke Havana Ribbon have made production costs low and quality high. Join 'em. There's a cigar counter near Havana Ribbon is also sold in Practical Pocket Packages of five cigars.

ed the goal all right, but he almost pulled a tactical error when he went on the field that would have gummed the works.

Nelson was so excited over the sudden opportunity for a heroic role that he momentarily forgot the rule imposing silence upon a newly substituted player, and he was about to tell Brown, center and captain of the team, where to pass him the ball. He had the words all ready to get on the air when one of the Iowa players sensed the situation and roared "SHUT UP." And he shut.

POOR KIDS, ALL EXCITED

Young substitutes under the pressure of excitement have been known to commit critical blunders, and one case is recalled that occurred in a Harvard-Princeton game a number of years ago.

A situation developed early in the final quarter when Princeton was placed in a zone for a field goal and the three points looked like a deciding margin.

Frank Murrey, a highly skilled drop-kicker, was sitting on the bench with his substitutes. Bill Roper, the coach, turned to him and told him to get out of his blanket. "Go in there and kick," Roper said. "They'll know what you're coming out for and you won't have to say anything." He told him to report as a substitute for one of the ends and that Lourie would move one of the backs over to end until another substitution could be made.

It was Murrey's first shot at fame and he was so excited he completely forgot the instructions of the coach. Lourie, the captain and the greatest back on the field, stood by when the youngster approached the referee.

NAMED THE WRONG MAN

Murrey as almost speechless and mumbled a few words that couldn't be understood. Finally Lourie asked, "Who goes out?"

The substitute seemed to snap out of his daze and said "You do. You go out."

Lourie knew that some mistake had been made, and so did the Harvard captain, who was standing with the group. Lourie signalled to the bench and was flagged to stay on the field.

But the referee ruled that the substitution had been made officially, and against the protest of the Harvard captain he sent Lourie from the field. And Princeton darn near lost the old ball game.

PHILS OUT ON THEIR FEET

In announcing that Heinie Sand and $50,000 had been shipped to St. Louis for Tommy Thevenow, Bill Baker, owner of the Phillies, said he was spending big money in spite of the fact that 1928 had punished the club with its first financial smack in history.

If it was the worst year Philadelphia ever had it must have been terrible, and it must have been horrible to behold, for some of the much better clubs had disastrous years.

Cleveland, for instance, according to the admission of its owner, lost more than $100,000.

Troubles Piling Up for Promoter Mullen

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The reign of James C. Mullen as Chicago's leading boxing promoter has ended, at least temporarily.

Several hours after the Illinois State Athletic Commission had suspended him indefinitely for failure to pay the state tax from proceeds of the Rene de Vos-Dave Shade bout, creditors took possession of his gymnasium through foreclosure proceedings.

The gymnasium, located in the heart of Chicago's loop, is probably the best equipped for training boxers in the world. It was furnished two years ago at a cost of more than $200,000 and since then virtually every champion has trained there.

Friends of the promoter, however, see in the foreclosure proceedings a silver lining for Mullen. For some time, they said, Mullen has been anxious to dissolve a partnership in the gymnasium and that the present legal action will give him a chance to start anew within a few months.

With Mullen's financial difficulties and suspension, more Chicago boxers than ever are expected to rap on the door of Tex Rickard at New York for matches during the winter.

Arlington Park Race Track Reorganized

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(AP)—After several days of dickering, Arlington Park, Chicago's most fashionable race track, still nestled in the arms of its original stockholders today.

Several deals, by one of which the $2,000,000 track would have been sold to Colonel Matt J. Winn and the American Turf Association, failed to materialize and all negotiations were broken off, it was announced. John R. Thompson, Jr., Chicago, Chicago restaurateur and racing enthusiast, was reported to be organizing a Chicago syndicate to take over the track.

Arlington Park, built two years ago, has been a loss financially, stockholders admit, and at one time it was doubtful whether the annual fall meeting could be held.
